

Job Title:

1-21-10

Senior Programmer/Machinist - Operations

Overall Objective:

Help build a world class organization. Join a talented team and help advance the latest rapid prototyping and manufacturing technologies. Make a difference by joining an industry leader committed to growth.

Responsibilities:

Other duties may be assigned.

- Technical expert within the department.
- Advanced level programming including full 4-axis.
- Machine set up and dial-in.
- Fixture design and manufacture.
- Machining finished prototype parts (Quantities from 1 to 100).
- Job quoting and process development. Inputs on routers.
- Administrative duties to include time tracking, quality system compliance, etc.
- Training/mentoring other programmers and machinists.
- Works closely with Dept Manager on work order responsibilities and schedule.
- Ensures safety issues are addressed and communicated to machining manager.
- Completes assigned tasks on time and meets expectations.
- Ensure all maintenance and tooling activities on assigned machines are completed on a regular schedule per quality system.
- Participates in the evaluation of new equipment and new employees.
- Support necessary overtime – This will average ~ 5-15% / week but may fluctuate up or down as necessary to support the business.

Qualifications:

- Master of CNC programming. MTI uses Unigraphics, Esprit, Cimatron, and Surf Cam software packages.
- Ability to run or quickly learn most machines within the department
 - Horizontal Machining Centers: Mori NH4000, SH-630
 - Vertical Machining Centers: Mori SV-50, HAAS
 - Turning Centers: Mori SL and NL Lathes
 - Wire EDMs: Charmilles 440s
 - EDM Drills: Belmont Astecs
- Special consideration given to those with:
 - Aerospace machining experience
 - Castings experience
 - A tool makers background
 - EDM experience

If you enjoy working with the newest technologies, best equipment, and a talented workforce that cares, send in your resume today.